

CCS goes Purple for Anti-Bullying!

On the 12th -16th November it is Anti-Bullying Week!

On Monday 12th November CCS hosted a purple cake sale to raise money for BulliesOut an amazing charity who raises awareness of bullying in schools, through workshops, and helps those who have suffered from bullying.

The cake sale was a great success with many purple treats to buy. In total we raised an impressive £120.09!

We want to thank everyone who supported the cake sale by making or buying cakes.

By Helen Jenkins

